Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was agreed to if an agreement was reached, or any other comments: Applicant's representative was considering what can be done to the claim language to enable the application to reach a better condition for the next amendment. Examiner has pointed out a few terms in the claim as being too broad or prone to several interpretations, one of which leading to the outstanding rejection. In regard to the concern of the representative as to what else can be added to the claim, Examiner has explained that there is some teaching in specific parts of the specs that can be used to overcome the flaws of prior art as mentioned in the BACKGROUND of the specifications; and that claim changes if any should bear on bringing forth some teaching in relation with the dynamic aspect as mentioned in the above parts of the disclosure as to show an improvement over the prior art..
